Does anyone remember Kerman's drive inn? It was located on West Main St. between Trappela Rd. and Brown Ave. They had the best burgers and hot dogs around. I think he was the first drive inn in the willimantic area.

Terrific burgers! My brother Charlie took me there when I was about 8 years old. I ordered a burger with mayo, lettuce and tomato. This embarrassed him. He said "Nobody has it that way. You should have it with ketchup and relish." The guy making the burgers said "Leave the kid alone. It's called a California Burger." I got what I wanted. I still have burgers that way.

Hi Jon & Whitey:

I too remember Kerman's DI.and Kerman too. He was a nice man who made great burgers and h'dogs as well as pies too.

Once I came there on a rainy winter afternoon during school holidays circa 1952....a pal of mine and I had been hunting with our BB guns on that long windy road that begins where Mansfield Ave ends. We walked out to Rte 32, hungry . tired and w/no game. We ended up at Kerman's when we saw my mother's car there. She was having lunch with my dad. We all had some great chow...seems like only....
