

Historical Articles | Home | Historian's articles | Picture Galleries | Pic of the Week | Forum | WFL | Contact us

Search for:

Advanced Search

Showing postings 1 - 4 of 4 in the thread: Wirthmore Feed Company.

Posting:	Wirthmore Feed Company	Posting 1
Poster:	W. Brainard
Date:	11 June 2006 9:47 AM
Anyone remember it? It was done around Union Street if I recall correctly.
Posting:	Re: Wirthmore Feed Company	Posting 2
Poster:	Ada
Date:	12 June 2006 12:05 AM
Years ago there was a Checkerboard Feed Store (Purina) on the corner of Broad and Valley Streets.
Posting:	Re: Wirthmore Feed Company	Posting 3
Poster:	William Brainard
Date:	12 June 2006 4:28 PM
Remember when Mackey's burned?
Posting:	Re: Wirthmore Feed Company	Posting 4
Poster:	John Tormey
Date:	12 June 2006 7:06 PM
Location sounds right. I believe the Wranna Family ran it (no pun intended). Their son, Jack Wranna (who worked there after school), was put on the bill to wrestle me in Windham High's Intermural Wrestling Competition in the Mid-Fifties. He tossed me around like a sack of grain. I still wince when I come across those photos of me with those mat burns on my face. (He won.)		